Terms and Conditions

Version 2.4 · Last updated 19 November 2026 · Effective from 19 November 2026

Please read this first

- Vedharish offers guidance, not certainty. Its readings come from the Vedic Jyotish tradition and from religious texts. They are not predictions that will come true, and your own choices shape your life.
- It is not professional advice. For health, pregnancy, legal, money, investment, education or career decisions, please consult a qualified professional. Never stop medicine or treatment because of anything in the app.
- In a crisis, call Tele-MANAS on 14416 (free, 24×7, in your language) or the emergency number 112.
- Answers are written by artificial intelligence and can be wrong. Each answer shows the chart facts it used, so you can judge it.
- Vedharish has no human astrologers and sells no remedies, gemstones or pujas. It never asks you to pay to avoid harm.
- Mantras are prayers from tradition. Their benefits are traditional beliefs, not proven results. A mantra is never a treatment: keep following your doctor.
- You must be 18 or older, and you may add another person's details only with their permission.

1. About these terms

1.1 These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") are an agreement between you and Vayura Global Ventures LLP, a limited liability partnership registered in India under the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008, with LLP Identification

Number (LLPIN) ACZ-9474 and registered office at C/O Padam Singh Rawat, Village Majeda Khatta, Garkote Malla, Salt, Almora – 263676, Uttarakhand, India, and office at 55, Westend Marg, Lane-2, Saidulajab, Saket, Delhi – 110030, India (near Saket Metro Station) ("Vedharish", "we", "us", "our").

1.2 They apply to the Vedharish web app at app.vedharish.com, the Vedharish mobile app for Android and iPhone, the website vedharish.com, and the answer, voice and read-aloud services that support them (together, the "Services").

1.3 By installing or using the Services, you agree to these Terms and to our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, please do not use the Services.

1.4 These Terms are an electronic record under the Information Technology Act, 2000 and the rules made under it. They do not need a physical or digital signature.

1.5 In these Terms, "including" means "including without limitation", and headings are for convenience only.

2. Who can use Vedharish

2.1 You must be at least 18 years old and able to enter a binding contract under Indian law. The app asks for your age before anything else, and it does not continue for anyone under 18.

2.2 A parent or lawful guardian may use the Services for a child, for example by adding the child's chart as a family member. They are responsible for that use.

2.3 The Services are designed for people in India. If you use them from elsewhere, you are responsible for following your local laws, and these Terms, including Indian governing law, still apply.

2.4 You must give true birth details for your own chart and keep your phone or computer secure. The Services do not use accounts or passwords, so anyone who can open the app on your phone, or the web app in your browser, can see your data.

3. What Vedharish provides

3.1 The Services are available as a web app at app.vedharish.com, and are planned as apps for Android and iPhone. They currently include:

- calculation of your birth chart (kundali) in North, South or East Indian style, divisional charts from D1 to D60, Vimshottari dashas, and Manglik and Sade Sati status;
- a daily panchang and a 30-day vrat and festival calendar for a city you choose, and optional morning alerts in the phone app;
- kundli matching by the Ashtakoot (36 guna) and South Indian 10 porutham methods;
- charts of family members you add with their permission;
- answers to your questions about your chart, and to questions of faith and practice through the "Doubt desk", written by artificial intelligence;
- spoken questions, and answers read aloud, in Indian languages; and
- a library of mantras and prayers from scripture, with their sources, meanings, a pronunciation guide and, where available, recordings, and a japa counter;
- screens and answers in 12 Indian languages.

3.2 Vedharish does not connect you with human astrologers, priests or counsellors. It does not book pujas, does not sell remedies, gemstones, yantras or other products, and does not offer matchmaking.

3.3 We may add, change or remove features. Section 15 explains how.

4. Guidance, not certainty or professional advice

4.1 Jyotish is a traditional system of interpretation. Vedharish calculates the positions of the planets precisely and presents the tradition's reading of them honestly, but no reading is a fact about your future. We do not claim, promise or guarantee that any reading, prediction, timing, match or remedy will be accurate or come true.

4.2 Nothing in the Services is medical, psychological, legal, financial, investment, tax, educational, career or other professional advice. It is not a substitute for a doctor, therapist, lawyer, chartered accountant, financial adviser or other qualified professional. Do not delay or avoid professional help, or stop any medicine or treatment, because of anything in the Services.

4.3 Nothing in the Services claims that any mantra, ritual, remedy, gemstone or practice will cure, treat or prevent any disease or condition. Remedies, where mentioned, are described as traditional practices, with free practices first, and are always optional.

4.4 Vedharish will never tell you that a marriage must not happen, that you should leave a partner or a job, or when anyone will die or fall ill. If any answer appears to do so, it is an error: please disregard it and report it to us.

4.5 If you are in distress or thinking about harming yourself, please call Tele-MANAS on 14416, which is free, 24×7 and available in Indian languages, or call 112 in an emergency. When a question suggests distress, the app shows these numbers instead of an answer.

4.6 You remain responsible for your decisions and for how you use what the Services show you.

5. Questions of faith

5.1 The Doubt desk explains practices, festivals, vrats and texts from the many traditions of India. It aims to answer from within each tradition, with references, and to say where customs differ between regions, schools and families.

5.2 Religious practice varies widely, and the Services do not issue religious rulings. Your family's custom, and your own priest, purohit, granthi, acharya, imam, pastor or teacher, are the authority for your practice.

5.3 The Services do not rank traditions, promote any religion over another, or seek to convert anyone. Any reference to scripture may contain errors; please check important references against the original text.

5.4 Vrat and festival dates follow classical rules calculated for your city. Temples, sampradayas and regional calendars may observe a date one day earlier or later.

5.5 Mantras and prayers. The Mantras section offers mantras, stotras and shlokas from Hindu scripture and tradition for devotion and learning. Each text names its source, and every text is checked letter by letter between its Devanagari and roman (IAST) forms. Meanings and word-by-word notes explain the text; they are not the only possible reading, and teachers and traditions may explain a text differently.

5.6 Benefits are traditional beliefs, never promises. Where the Services say what a mantra is "traditionally recited for", they describe what tradition and devotees believe. This is not scientifically proven, and we do not claim, promise or guarantee any result: no cure, recovery, protection, money, job, marriage, exam result or other outcome.

5.7 A mantra is not a treatment. No mantra, prayer, japa or recording in the Services diagnoses, treats, cures, mitigates or prevents any disease or condition. Chant alongside proper medical or psychological care, never instead of it, and never stop, reduce or change a medicine or treatment because of a mantra. Mantras linked in tradition with health, money or study carry a notice saying so on their page.

5.8 Tradition and initiation. Some mantras, such as the Gayatri and mantras with seed sounds (bija), are traditionally received from a guru, and Vedic mantras are traditionally chanted with pitch (svara) learnt from a teacher. The pronunciation guide shows standard Sanskrit sounds; regional and family styles differ and are equally valid. Please follow your family's tradition or your guru where you have one.

5.9 Nothing to buy. The mantra library, the pronunciation guide, recordings and the japa counter are free. Vedharish never sells, and never asks you to pay for, a mantra, puja, yantra, gemstone or remedy, and never tells you that you must chant anything to avoid harm.

5.10 The japa counter keeps your counts and any goal you set only on your device. Missing a day has no consequence. Please chant at a comfortable pace and take breaks.

5.11 If you find an error in a mantra's text, meaning or source, please tell us at hello@vayura.ai; we check every report and correct the library.

6. AI-generated answers

6.1 Answers are generated by an artificial-intelligence language model, currently provided by Anthropic, using your question, your chart facts and our rules for answering. No person at Vedharish reviews an answer before you see it.

6.2 AI can make mistakes. An answer may be inaccurate, incomplete, inconsistent with an earlier answer, or wrong about a fact or a reference. Each answer shows the chart facts it relied on and how many indicators agree, so that you can weigh it yourself.

6.3 Answers are written for you and depend on how a question is asked, so the same question may receive different wording at different times.

6.4 Please do not try to make the AI produce harmful, hateful, sexual, illegal or misleading content, or try to get around its safety rules (section 10).

6.5 If you see an answer that is wrong, harmful or offensive, please tell us at hello@vayura.ai.

6.6 Answers are laid out as a short direct answer followed by a few key points and, where useful, simple free things you can do. When an answer quotes the words of a mantra, it quotes them only from the Vedharish mantra library (section 5.5); it is instructed never to write Sanskrit verses from memory.

7. Calculations, calendars and matching

7.1 Charts use sidereal positions with the Lahiri ayanamsa, whole-sign houses and the Vimshottari dasha system. We test our calculations against an independent astronomical reference and publish the results. Even so, we do not warrant that every calculation is free of error.

7.2 Results depend on the birth details you enter. An unknown or approximate birth time makes the lagna, houses and divisional charts uncertain; higher divisional charts such as D60 can change with a difference of a few minutes. The app tells you when this applies.

7.3 Time zones are set for India, including the Indian war-time offset of 1942 to 1945. Some cities used local time before 1955, so please check old records.

7.4 Matching scores (guna points, poruthams, Manglik comparison) are traditional indicators only. They leave out what matters most in a marriage, including values, health, families and the free consent of both people. They must never be used to pressure anyone into or out of a marriage, and must not be used for anyone below the legal age of marriage.

8. Your data and your phone

8.1 Your birth details, charts, family charts, settings and saved questions are kept on your device: in the phone app, or in your browser's storage when you use the web app, as our Privacy Policy explains. We do not keep a backup. If you delete the app, clear its data or your browser's site data, lose your phone or change devices, this data will be lost and we cannot restore it.

8.2 You can delete all your data at any time in Privacy → Delete my account and data.

9. Other people's details

9.1 You may enter another person's birth details, as a family member or as a partner for matching, only if you have their permission, or if you are their parent or lawful guardian. The app asks you to confirm this every time.

9.2 You are responsible for having that permission and for how you use the results. Please remove a person's chart if they ask you to.

9.3 Do not share another person's chart readings in a way that embarrasses, harms or discriminates against them.

10. Acceptable use

When using the Services, you agree not to:

- break any law, or use the Services for fraud or deception;
- enter another person's details without their permission, or impersonate anyone;
- use the Services, or their output, to harass, threaten, shame, exploit or discriminate against anyone, including on grounds of caste, religion, gender, community or disability;
- use readings or matching results to make decisions that affect other people's rights or opportunities, such as hiring, tenancy, lending, education or marriage arrangements made without the free consent of those involved;
- sell, publish or present answers from the Services as paid astrological, religious or professional services, or use them to frighten people into paying for anything;
- try to make the AI produce harmful, hateful, sexual or illegal content, or to get around its safety rules;
- copy, scrape, harvest, resell, frame or mirror the Services or their content by automated means;
- reverse-engineer, decompile or disassemble the app, except where the law expressly allows it;
- interfere with, overload or disrupt the Services, get around rate limits, or test their security without our written permission; or
- upload or send viruses or any other harmful code.

If you find a security weakness, please report it to girish@vayura.ai and give us reasonable time to fix it before telling anyone else.

11. Voice, read-aloud and alerts

11.1 Spoken questions are recorded only while you are recording, and they are turned into text by our speech provider. Transcription may be imperfect, so please check the text before relying on the answer.

11.2 Read-aloud uses a speech provider, or your phone's own voice, and pronunciation may be imperfect.

11.3 Morning alerts are available in the phone app and are scheduled on your phone. They depend on your phone's settings, and they may be delayed or missed if notifications are off, the phone is off, or battery saving is on.

12. Price, the yearly pass and refunds

12.1 Free. Making your kundali, Today (panchang and vrat calendar) and Match are free. Each device also gets 3 free AI answers. Questions that suggest a crisis are always answered with helpline details, free and without limit.

12.2 The yearly pass. To keep asking, you can buy a yearly pass for ₹499, inclusive of all taxes. It lasts 365 days from the date of payment. It is a one-time payment and does not renew automatically. We show the full price before you pay and never charge you without your explicit agreement.

12.3 What the pass includes. With a pass you can ask as many questions as you need about your chart and your faith, for your own personal use, subject to fair use (section 15.2A). The pass does not change what the Services are: guidance from tradition, not certainty or professional advice (section 4).

12.4 Payment. Payments are taken by Razorpay, our payment provider, by UPI, card, net banking or wallet, and are also subject to Razorpay's terms. We never see or store your card, UPI or bank details.

12.5 Delivery. The pass works on the device you paid on as soon as the payment is confirmed, usually within seconds. Nothing is shipped. On another device, use "Already paid?" with the email you paid with and the payment ID from Razorpay's receipt. Our Delivery Policy explains what happens if the pass does not appear.

12.6 Keep your pass to yourself. The pass is for you. Please do not share your payment ID or sell access. We may end a pass that is resold or shared widely, after telling you why.

12.7 Refunds. You can get a full refund for any reason if you ask within 7 days of paying. After 7 days we refund only if you were charged twice or by mistake, if a paid pass did not work and we could not fix it, if we stop providing the Services before your pass ends (in proportion to the days left), or where the law requires. Refunds go to the original payment method. Our Cancellation and Refund Policy has the details and timelines. A refunded pass stops working.

12.8 Price changes. We may change the price of new passes. A pass you have bought keeps its price and end date.

12.9 Receipts and invoices. Razorpay emails you a receipt. If you need an invoice for your payment, write to us at hello@vayura.ai with the payment ID.

12.10 Phone apps. In the Android and iPhone apps, the yearly pass is sold through Google Play or the App Store, at the price the store shows, and those stores' terms and refund rules apply to that purchase. A pass bought on the website also works in the apps (use "Already paid?"). A pass bought in an app works in the apps on the same Google Play or Apple account (use "Restore purchase"), but not on the website.

13. Intellectual property

13.1 The Vedharish name, the वेधरीश wordmark, our logo, the app and its software, design, text, illustrations and other original content belong to us or our licensors and are protected by law.

13.2 We give you a personal, limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable and revocable licence to install and use the app on devices you own or control, for your own non-commercial use, in line with these Terms.

13.3 Your questions are yours. You give us permission to process them, and the chart facts sent with them, only to provide the Services to you, as our Privacy Policy describes.

13.4 Answers. As between you and us, you may use and share the answers you receive for personal, non-commercial purposes. Please do not present them as professional or religious advice.

13.5 Scriptural texts quoted or referred to in answers are in the public domain or belong to their owners. The Sanskrit texts in the mantra library are in the public domain; our transliterations, translations, meanings, pronunciation notes, their arrangement, and any recordings belong to us or our licensors. Third-party software, data and fonts used in the Services are listed with their licences in the app (Privacy) and in the app's source notices. They include astronomy-engine (MIT licence), GeoNames city data (CC BY 4.0), and the Anek, Tiro Devanagari Hindi and IBM Plex Mono typefaces (SIL Open Font Licence).

13.6 If you send us ideas or feedback, we may use them freely, without any obligation to you.

14. Third-party services

14.1 The Services rely on third-party providers, such as our AI, speech and hosting providers, and are distributed through app stores. Your phone, its operating system, the app stores and your mobile network are provided by others under their own terms.

14.2 Links to other websites or phone numbers, including helplines, are provided for your convenience. We do not control those services and are not responsible for them.

15. Availability, changes and sample answers

15.1 We work to keep the Services available, but they may sometimes be slow, interrupted or unavailable, for example during maintenance, a network failure or a provider outage.

15.2 When the answer server cannot be reached, the app shows a sample answer that is clearly labelled as such. Sample answers are not readings of your chart.

15.2A To keep the Services fair and affordable, we limit how many answers can be asked in a period, from one network and in total, including with a pass (fair use). Free answers are counted on each device and, per day, on each network. When a limit is reached, the app says so, and you can ask again later.

15.3 We may change, suspend or stop any part of the Services. If a change significantly reduces what you can do, we will tell you in the app in advance where we reasonably can.

15.4 Please keep the app updated. Older versions may stop working or lack safety improvements.

16. Suspension and ending use

16.1 You can stop using the Services at any time, and delete your data in the app or by uninstalling it.

16.2 We may limit, block or suspend access to the Services, for example by blocking an IP address or app version, if we reasonably believe they are being misused, are at risk, or must be restricted by law. Where it is appropriate and lawful, we will explain why.

16.3 Sections 4, 6, 7, 13, 17, 18, 19, 22 and 25 continue to apply after you stop using the Services.

17. Disclaimer of warranties

17.1 To the extent the law allows, the Services are provided "as is" and "as available". We do not make any promise, express or implied, about their accuracy, completeness, reliability or fitness for a particular purpose, or that they will be uninterrupted or free of errors, beyond what these Terms state.

17.2 Nothing in these Terms excludes any warranty or right that you have under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 or any other law that cannot be excluded.

18. Limitation of liability

18.1 To the extent the law allows, Vedharish, its directors, employees and service providers are not liable for:

- decisions you or others make, or do not make, based on the Services;
- indirect, incidental, special or consequential loss, or loss of profit, income, opportunity, goodwill or data; or
- events beyond our reasonable control (section 25.5).

18.2 To the extent the law allows, our total liability to you for all claims arising out of or relating to the Services is limited to the greater of the amount you paid us for the Services in the 12 months before the claim, and ₹1,000.

18.3 Nothing in these Terms limits liability that cannot be limited by law, including for fraud, for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 or the DPDP Act.

19. Indemnity

To the extent the law allows, you agree to compensate us for reasonable losses, costs and claims made by others that result from your breach of these Terms, your misuse of the Services, or your entering another person's details without their permission. This does not apply to the extent a loss is caused by our own breach or negligence.

20. Privacy

Our Privacy Policy explains what personal data we process, why, and your rights under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023. It forms part of these Terms.

21. Complaints and grievance redressal

21.1 If something goes wrong, please tell us first. We want to fix it.

23. Changes to these terms

23.1 We may update these Terms when the Services or the law change. We will show the new version in the app and on this page, with the date and a summary of what changed.

23.2 For significant changes, we will tell you in the app at least 15 days before they take effect, unless a change is required sooner by law or to protect users.
